

Scholarship supplement for international mobility

Students taking part in an international mobility programme, if they appear on the ranking list of scholarship candidates, will be entitled to receive the supplement for international mobility by requesting it when applying for the scholarship.

The subsidy amounts to € 550,00 per month, deducted from any grants awarded through EU funds and through funds made available by public or private entities, for a maximum period of 10 months, besides reimbursement of travel expenses for a total of € 150,00 for European countries and € 500,00 for countries outside the European Union.

For further information, please refer to the Call for Scholarship Applications.